

STATE ✓ VERMONT	COUNTY Windham	TOWN OR VICINITY Rockingham (On N. side of State Rt. 103, 2nd house E. of the Rockingham Meetinghouse) 7p 3d
INDEX NUMBER VT, 13-ROCHA, 2	MONUMENT David Pulsifer Inn
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. VT-41	History - This house, built c. 1765, was operated as an inn by the original owner, David Pulsifer. The present owners, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Avery Smith, use the building as an antique shop and home. The house has had few alterations.
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS
		Description - Frame, clapboard, two-and-a-half stories, gable roof, unusual entrance doorway, central chimney type plan. (over) ✓
GPO 6-8369	10-444 HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

Reference - Interview with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Avery Smith, present owners, who have spent much time and effort getting information and renovating house.

Author of Card - Osmund R. Overby, Architect, National Park Service, 143 South Third Street, Philadelphia 6, Pa.--
October 1960